The shares of the Company and the right to vote for shares

As of today, the Company's share capital is NOK 604,242,218, divided into 604,242,218 shares each having a par value of NOK 1. At the extraordinary general meeting held on 7 March 2025, it was resolved to reduce the share capital by NOK 592,157,373.64. However, due to the creditor notice period, this resolution will not take effect until on or about 22 April 2025. Consequently, the Company will have a new share capital prior to the annual general meeting on 29 April 2025, but after the issuance of this notice. When the capital reduction takes effect on or about 22 April 2025, the Company's new share capital will be NOK 12,084,844.36 divided into 604,242,218 shares each with a par value of NOK 0.02.

Each share is entitled to one vote at the general meeting. There are no limitations for voting rights set out in the articles of association, however, no voting rights may be exercised for the Company's own shares (treasury shares) or for shares held by the Company's subsidiaries. As per the date hereof, the Company holds no own shares.

Each shareholder has the right to vote for the number of shares owned by the shareholder on April 22, 2025 (the record date). Owners of shares held through a custodian must additionally ensure that the company is notified separately, see below.

More information regarding the capital reduction and the extraordinary general meeting is available on www.akercarboncaptureasa.com.

The shareholders' rights

A shareholder cannot demand that new items are added to the agenda when the deadline for such request has expired, cf. section 5-11 second sentence of the Norwegian Public Limited Liability Companies Act.

A shareholder has the right to make proposals for a resolution regarding the items which will be considered by the general meeting.

A shareholder has the right to require board members and the general manager to provide necessary information to the general meeting that may affect the approval of the annual accounts and the annual report, and the consideration of matters submitted to shareholders for decision. The same applies to information regarding the Company's financial condition including information on other companies in which the company participates and other matters to be addressed at the general meeting, unless the information required cannot be disclosed without causing disproportionate harm to the Company.

If additional information is necessary, and an answer cannot be given at the general meeting, a written answer shall be prepared within two weeks from the date of the general meeting. Such answer shall be available to the shareholders at the Company's premises and be sent to shareholders requesting the information. If the answer is considered material for evaluation of the circumstances mentioned in the previous paragraph, the answer should be sent to all shareholders with known address.
